

Obituary

The De La Salle Brothers announced with deep sorrow the death of Brother Herman Fenton FSC, who passed away peacefully in the St Teresa's Hospital on February 21st, 2009, at the age of 95.

Brother Herman was born in County Limerick, Ireland in April 1913. He taught in La Salle College from 1947 to 1969. In 1964-65, Brother Herman established the La Salle Evening School, providing education opportunity to the less fortunate. In 1969 Brother Herman founded Chan Sui Ki (La Salle) College, and all the evening school students were transferred to the new school in Homantin. In 1973, he founded the Chan Sui Ki (La Salle) Primary School. He remained as supervisor of Chan Sui Ki (La Salle) Primary School until now.

A funeral mass will be celebrated at 9:30am at the St Teresa's Church, Prince Edward Road, Kowloon on February 25th, followed by the burial at St Michael Catholic Cemetery, Happy Valley.

Say a prayer of repose of soul for Brother Herman. May he rest in peace.
